

This is why your resume was rejected

I stumbled across a very interesting infographic today that I had to share. It details reasons why resumes (commonly known as CVs overseas) are rejected. As I reviewed it, I speculated how closely it mirrored the attitude of recruiters here in the good ol' USA. My guess is that their reasons for rejecting a resume is pretty similar to ours.

Check out a few of their reasons:

- 1 Typo on your resume and you are rejected
 - Applications are received within the first 200 seconds of posting a job. (Was yours among them?)
 - 1 in 3 Employers reject you due to something they found online. (I gave a presentation on this recently. This is sooo true here in the USA.)
- Check out the rest of the stats below.
